“Finding Resilience: Lessons from the Cactus”

a presentation by

Beth Terry

President & CEO, Beth Terry Seminars Inc.

In these uncertain times, leaders, managers, and employees need to be Resilient. This calls for better coping skills, more skillful interactions with others, and ways to keep our heads clear and our feet firmly on the ground. Beth Terry has been through a lot in the last decade, and she shares the lessons she has learned moving from decades in Hawaii to the deserts of Phoenix, Arizona. Come hear how the most resilient plan in the world, the Cactus, can teach us to be resilient, too.
