Hawaii Chapter

“Employment Law Update”

Presented By

Tamara M. Gerrard, Labor & Employment Law Practice with Torkildson
Katz Moore Hetherington & Harris

The ADA Amendments Act of 2008: Big changes to the definition of disability increase employers' obligations to provide reasonable accommodations. Learn how you can determine if accommodations are “reasonable” and how to properly engage in the “interactive process” as required by law.

The Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act of 2009: The law has expanded the timeframe for asserting unequal pay claims. Hear what you can do to protect yourself against stale claims.

Unemployment Tax Hikes: Now it is even more important to fight baseless unemployment claims.
